PART II
TEACHING PLAN

Introduction

ATTENTION: Today, we are going to have a formal inspection.

MOTIVATION: You are ready to perform some "drill squadron" duties which include formal inspection.

OVERVIEW: The inspection is to determine if the lesson taught last week was effective and provide me a means of properly inspecting you as individuals in formation.

TRANSITION: FALL IN!

Body

MP 1   The squadron will be formed by the designated first sergeant, as previously instructed and practiced. Reports will be taken and flight sergeants and flight leaders will be posted. The first sergeant will report to the commander and take his post.

MP 2   The commander will command, "PREPARE FOR INSPECTION." Flight commanders will cause their flight to open ranks, check the alignment of their respective flights and take their positions for inspection. The inspection will take place as prescribed in AFM 36-2203.

Conclusion

SUMMARY: The commander will summarize the results of the inspection with the cadets.

REMOTIVATION: The commander will give praise where praise is due and constructive criticism where required.

CLOSURE: FALL OUT!
